CHILDREN SERVICES

Kenneth is not short on charm. He is polite, well-mannered and always ready with a smile. This caring young man values family connections. Kenneth comes from a large family and misses his siblings.

He would like a forever family that is active and encourages some interaction with his brothers and sisters. He has an interest in music, boxing and cars. Kenneth would thrive in a home with strong male role models. He would love opportunities to participate in sports, work out, learn how to work on cars and attend sporting events.
