Staff member Darrell Lieurance performed back blows to remove an airway obstruction, a life saving technique, on Cheryl Kopczynski, on May 6, 2009 while working at the Calumet Adult Services Center.

His professional and timely action saved Cheryl's life. His knowledge of performing this life saving technique is truly an asset to the individuals and families served by the Board of MR/DD.

He was commended by the Superintendent for the excellent professional service provided to Cheryl. His proactive actions to save a life are truly admirable and exemplifies his true dedication and service to the individuals and families our agency serves during their lifetime.
