GENERAL RULES

RULE 4.01

ADOPTION, SCOPE AND CONSTRUCTION OF RULES

(A) The Domestic Relations Division of the Common Pleas Court for Montgomery County, Ohio adopts the following rules for the management of proceedings and other functions of the court pursuant to Rule 5 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio. The court may amend these rules from time to time as needed or as required by law.

(B) These rules are intended to supplement and complement the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, the Rules of Superintendence for the courts of Ohio, and other controlling statutes.

(C) These rules shall be applied, construed and enforced so as to avoid inconsistency with other rules of court and statutes governing proceedings of this court. These rules shall be construed so as to provide fairness and to secure just and expeditious determination of all proceedings. These rules shall apply to proceedings pending at the time they take effect, and to future proceedings.

Pursuant to The Supreme Court of Ohio 6/26/2015 Administrative Actions, 2015-Ohio-2568, effective immediately, pursuant to Article IV, Section 5 of the Ohio Constitution and Rule 84 of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, that all references to husband, wife, father, mother, parent, spouse, and other terms that express familial relationships contained in the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio and related forms and the Uniform Domestic Relations Forms of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure be construed as gender neutral where appropriate to comply with the decision of the United States Supreme Court in Obergefell v. Hodges, Case No. 14-556, rendered June 26, 2015.

(D) These rules shall be cited as "Mont. D.R. Rule 4.XX."

(E) These rules shall be effective January 1, 2018 and supersede all previous rules promulgated by this court.

RULE 4.02

LICENSE TO PRACTICE LAW/PRO SE LITIGANTS COMPLIANCE WITH OHIO RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

(A) No lawyer representing a client in any case in this court shall make any appearance or file any document with the Clerk of Courts unless that lawyer is licensed to practice law and is in good standing under Ohio law. A lawyer representing a client has an affirmative duty to notify the court in any pending case if for any reason the lawyer is no longer in good standing. A violation of this rule may result in contempt sanctions against the violator, including assessment of clerk administrative fees and attorney fees. The court may also strike pleadings or vacate proceedings in which the attorney appeared while the attorney was not in good standing to practice law in Ohio.

Nothing in these rules shall be construed so as to prevent a party or parties from representing themselves. Any pleading, motion or other filing signed by a pro se litigant may be submitted to the court to ensure compliance with the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure and these rules as to form and content only.

(B) Unless otherwise provided herein, all pleadings, motions and other filings shall comply, in form and content, with the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of this court.

RULE 4.03
SPECIAL NEEDS/COMPLIANCE
WITH AMERICAN WITH DISABILITIES ACT AND INTERPRETER SERVICES

Individuals with disabilities, special needs or the need for an interpreter should make requests for reasonable accommodations to the court's purchasing coordinator at (937) 224-8747 at least seven (7) days prior to any scheduled hearing so that arrangements can be made.

If the interpreter service is no longer required or if the parties continue the hearing, the parties must immediately notify the court's purchasing coordinator in order to cancel or reschedule the service. Failure to notify the court's purchasing coordinator of a cancelled or re-set hearing may result in an assessment of the cancellation fee for the interpreter service. Only court appointed interpreters shall be used in court proceedings.

RULE 4.04
CLERK ADMINISTRATIVE FEES

(A) Fees Deposit. The Clerk of Courts shall not accept any action for filing without a deposit as security for fees unless waived by statute or court order. The court or Clerk of Courts may require an additional deposit during the pendency of an action. Child Support Enforcement Agency (hereinafter "CSEA") filings and domestic violence filings do not require a deposit as security for costs.

Contact Clerk of Courts office at (937) 496-7625 for current deposit requirements and fee schedule.

(B) Poverty Affidavit. The deposit as security for fees shall not be required if a party files a poverty affidavit. [Appendix, Form 1]

If, during the course of a proceeding, the court determines that a party who has filed Poverty Affidavit, is able to pay clerk administrative fees, the court may order that party to pay the fees within a reasonable period of time commensurate with the circumstances.

(C) Responsibility for Fees. All entries and orders shall contain a provision for allocating payment of fees. The Clerk shall not accept for filing any decree or post-decree entry or order without the payment of any fees due, unless waived or otherwise modified by the court. In the absence of any provision, the balance of fees shall be paid as follows: (1) by the plaintiff in an uncontested divorce, legal separation or annulment proceeding; (2) equally between the parties in a contested divorce proceeding or dissolution proceeding; or (3) by the movant in a post-decree proceeding. The court or Clerk of Courts may require an additional deposit during the pendency of an action.

(D) Deposits Applied. Upon final judgment, the Clerk of Courts is directed to apply the deposits to the administrative fees in the case, regardless of the party against whom fees are assessed. The Clerk shall thereupon assess the fees against the proper party, and notify that party, reimbursing the administrative fees, when appropriate.

(E) Special Project Fee. The Clerk of Courts shall assess a charge of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each filing of a Complaint for Divorce, Dissolution, Legal Separation or Annulment, post decree motion, petition or any other pleading which requires determination by judgment entry. RULE 4.27
AWARD OF ATTORNEY FEES

(A) Discretionary Attorney Fee Awards. Pursuant to the court's equitable powers and jurisdiction granted by R.C. 3105.011, and pursuant to the specific authority granted by R.C. 3105.73, the court may award reasonable attorney fees at any stage of proceedings, including appeal, modification, and enforcement cases, if the court determines that a party will be prevented from fully litigating their rights and adequately protecting their interests, and that the award is equitable. Also, pursuant to the terms of R.C. 3123.17, the court may order either party to pay costs, including attorney fees, whenever the court issues or modifies a child support or spousal support order.

(B) Enforcement Actions. The court may award attorney fees, costs, and other expenses of suit to a successful moving party in any enforcement action, regardless of the moving party's own ability to pay such expenses. Such an award is mandatory in any contempt action involving child support [R.C. 3109.05(C)], parenting time [R.C. 3109.051(K)], or spousal support [R.C. 3105.18(G)]. Evidence of payment of attorney fees for the prosecution of the contempt action must be presented.

(C) Awards For Delay Or Frivolous Conduct. If the court determines that an action or pleading is frivolous or has been filed to cause delay or harassment, the court may require the offending party to pay reasonable expenses of the other party including attorney fees and costs [Civil Rule 11].

(D) Discovery Sanctions. Pursuant to Civil Rule 37 and Mont. D.R. Rule 4.18, the court may impose sanctions that include the award of attorney fees and other litigation expenses upon the failure of a party or counsel to comply with discovery requirements.

(F) Reasonable Fee. In determining the necessity for and reasonableness of attorney fees, the court may use its own knowledge and experience, plus its own observations of time and effort expended, tactics used, discovery cooperation shown, settlement efforts made, and compliance with court orders demonstrated. The court may also consider the amount of attorney fees the opposing party incurred in the same matter.

Absent evidence to the contrary, the following shall be considered a prima facie reasonable attorney fee: up to $500 per hearing conducted or prepared for, in modification and enforcement proceedings; and up to $1,000 in divorce, legal separation, annulment, appeal, and custody proceedings.

(G) Attorney Fee Hearing Requirements.

- (1) If the moving party's request exceeds the prima facie reasonable attorney fee amounts set forth in paragraph (F), that party must file a motion to set the matter for hearing.
- (2) Prior to any attorney fee hearing, both parties shall make a detailed written disclosure of attorney fees incurred, including hourly rates charged, time expended, fees paid, the source of fees paid, amounts due, and additional litigation expenses incurred. In order to minimize each party's litigation expenses and litigation in the court generally, counsel shall apply their own experience and make every good faith effort to reach agreement. If fee hearing is necessary, the moving party must provide testimony from an expert witness (another attorney with domestic relations experience) as to the reasonableness of the request, based on Rule 1.5 of the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct and Swanson v. Swanson (1976), 48 Ohio App. 2d 85.

(H) Award to Party Only. Any attorney fee award made by this court must be entered in favor of a party litigant and not directly in favor of a party's attorney. Such awards may be added to support accounts and collected through withholding notices.

The guardian ad litem shall have satisfied the training requirements set forth in the Rules of Superintendence 48(E) and comply with the other provisions of Sup.R. 48. The court's Family Relations Department may be appointed to conduct a Family Investigation. A guardian or Family Investigator appointed by the court need not be an attorney. The role of the guardian or Family Investigator is to perform an investigation and to be an advocate for the child's best interest, not to be the child's attorney. The guardian or Family Investigator may meet the child alone for discussion, observe the child's interaction with each parent, conduct a home visit at both parents' residence and talk with other key individuals such as the child's teacher, neighbors and relatives. The guardian or Family Investigator shall submit a written report of their findings and recommendations to the court and counsel. [See the Guidelines for Guardian Ad Litem Appointments in Appendix, Form 11].

(B) Fees. Unless ordered otherwise, the party requesting the appointment shall be responsible for payment of the guardian's fee and shall be required to deposit the fee in advance with the guardian or the Clerk of Courts. The court may reallocate such fees at a subsequent hearing. Attorneys appointed to serve as guardians will be entitled to compensation for services up to $1,000 per case unless higher fees are approved by the assigned judge. These fees shall be billed directly to the parties and paid directly to the appointed guardian. A fee in the amount of $500, or as otherwise approved by the judge, will be assessed as court costs when the court's Family Relations Department is appointed as Family Investigator.

(C) Report. The written report of the guardian ad litem or Family Investigator shall be submitted to the assigned judge or magistrate, with copies to both attorneys, no less than seven (7) days before the scheduled hearing unless otherwise ordered. The report shall not be submitted to the Clerk of Courts for filing.

The report shall be accepted into evidence as the guardian ad litem's direct testimony. He or she may be subject to cross-examination by either party. (B) Report. In accordance with the Guidelines For Child Custody Evaluation set forth in Appendix, [Form 10] the psychologist or psychiatrist will provide the court with the original written report and recommendations no less than seven (7) days prior to the hearing unless otherwise ordered. He or she may be subject to cross-examination by either party. A party desiring to cross-examine shall arrange for the psychologist's or psychiatrist's appearance at hearing and is responsible for paying the fee for that appearance. The report shall not be submitted to the Clerk of Courts for filing.

An order advising the parents of the seminar will be mailed directly to the parties. Each parent shall be responsible for registering for the seminar. The parties' action may not proceed to final hearing until there has been compliance with this rule. This requirement may be waived for good cause shown. Non-compliance by a parent who enters no appearance and does not contest the action will not delay the final hearing.

Out-of-state parties may fulfill the requirement by attending a similar seminar available in their state and provide a copy of the certificate of completion to this court.

Seminar attendance may also be required by order of the court in actions involving post-decree motions for custody of, or parenting time with, minor children.

The court may, when it appears to be in the best interests of the child(ren), order additional parenting education for either party.

RULE 4.33

(D) Pre-Decree Separate Request(s) for Shared Parenting. When only one party requests shared parenting and submits a separate plan to the court, the matter will be scheduled in the same manner as a contested custody case.

(E) Post-Decree Joint Requests for Shared Parenting. When a post-decree joint request for shared parenting with a joint plan is filed, a hearing before a magistrate must be scheduled no less than thirty (30) days after the filing. If approved, the magistrate will prepare an agreed Final Decree of Shared Parenting.

(F) Post-Decree Joint Requests for Shared Parenting (settlement). When a post-decree contested custody is settled by an agreement to submit a joint shared parenting plan, the magistrate will reset the hearing to provide for the filing of the request and shared parenting plan prior to the hearing.

(G) Post-Decree Separate Request(s) for Shared Parenting. When either party requests shared parenting and submits a separate plan to the court, the matter will be scheduled in the same manner as a contested custody case.

(H) Agreed Modifications of Existing Shared Parenting Plan. An agreed entry presented to the court to modify some terms of a prior Shared Parenting Plan will be processed in the same manner as other agreed entries. If the entry modifies support or health care, it shall be submitted to the court's Compliance Office with all necessary documents. A hearing on the agreed entry is not required.

(I) Motions to Modify Existing Shared Parenting Plan. When a party wishes to modify an existing shared parenting plan, a motion shall be filed and a hearing shall be set in accordance with these rules.

RULE 4.34

All parenting time orders shall contain paragraphs 18, 19 and 20 of the Standard Order of Parenting Time. [See Appendix, Form 4]

Prior to or during the pendency of an action for divorce, annulment, or legal separation, one or both of the spouses may request conciliation. If the request for conciliation occurs prior to filing an action, the party may contact the Parent Education Department by phone or in person for an appointment during regular business hours. If the request for conciliation comes during the pendency of a case, a motion and entry shall be prepared and submitted to Parent Education Department. Conciliation Counseling can be scheduled with counselors at the Court, if the parties do not elect to find a counselor in the community.

Conciliation proceedings shall stay the final hearing of the case until the process is completed, or 90 days, whichever comes first. A petition for conciliation does not stay any temporary order or enforcement of same.

RULE 4.36
MEDIATION

(A) Introduction. This Court incorporates by reference the O.R.C. Chapter 2710, "Uniform Mediation Act" (UMA); R.C. 3109.052, Mediation Order and Rule 16 of the Supreme Court of Ohio Rules of Superintendence. All definitions found in the UMA are adopted by this court.

(B) Purpose. To promote greater efficiency and public satisfaction through the facilitation of the earliest possible resolution for domestic relation cases through the use of mediation.

(C) Scope. Any action under the jurisdiction of this court may be referred to mediation.

- (1) Referral Process. The court, on its own motion, or the motion of any of the parties may refer disputed issues pending before the court to mediation in whole or in part by an “Order Scheduling Mediation” which shall, at a minimum indicate the date, time, place and contact information of the mediation. All parties and counsel shall advise the assigned judge or magistrate of any domestic violence allegations known to them to exist or to have existed in the past, or which become known to them following entry of the order but before conclusion of all mediation proceedings, which allegations involve any two or more persons whose attendance is required by the referral order.

If the request for mediation services is not generated from a hearing before a magistrate or judge, an attorney or pro se party may draft a motion and order to be signed by the judge and/or magistrate ordering the parties to court mediation service. After the motion is filed, a time-stamped copy of the motion and order shall be given to the Mediation Services Department.

(2) Eligibility of Cases

The Mediation Services Department will determine the eligibility and appropriateness of each referral prior to the commencement of the mediation process and may decline any referral deemed inappropriate.

(3) Mediator Selection and Assignment.

The following methods may be used to determine the mediator for the case:

- a. The court randomly assigns a mediator to the case from the court’s roster of approved staff mediators.
- b. Specific appointments may be made by the court taking into consideration the qualifications, skills, expertise, and caseload of the mediator in addition to the type, complexity and requirements of the case.

(E) Procedures. In accordance with all applicable provisions of this rule, if a case is deemed appropriate by the court, mediation will be scheduled. A mediator may meet with the parties individually prior to bringing the parties together for any reason including, but not limited to further screening. A mediator may schedule multiple mediation sessions, if necessary and mutually acceptable for the resolution of the issues in part or in their entirety.

- (1) The court shall utilize procedures for all cases that will:

- a. Ensure that parties are allowed to participate in mediation, and if the parties wish, that their attorneys and other individuals they designate are allowed to accompany them and participate in mediation.
- b. Screen for domestic violence both before and during mediation.
- c. Encourage appropriate referrals to legal counsel and other support services for all parties, including victims of and suspected victims of domestic violence.
- d. Prohibit the use of mediation in any of the following:
 - o As an alternative to the prosecution or adjudication of domestic violence;
 - o In determining whether to grant, modify or terminate a protection order;
 - o In determining the terms and conditions of a protection order; and
 - o In determining the penalty for violation of a protection order.

Nothing in this division of this rule shall prohibit the use of mediation in a subsequent divorce or custody case even though that case may result in the termination of the provisions of a protection order.

- (2) Mediation of allocation of parental rights and responsibilities or the care of, or visitation with, minor children shall abide by all provisions set forth in (E)(1) of this rule, mediation may then proceed, when violence or fear of violence is alleged, suspected, or present, only if the mediator has specialized training set forth in "Qualifications" section (F) of this rule and all of the following conditions are satisfied:
 - a. The person who is or may be the victim of domestic violence is fully informed, both orally and in writing, about the mediation process, his or her right to decline participation in the mediation process, and his or her option to have a support person present at mediation sessions.
 - b. The parties have the capacity to mediate without fear of coercion or control.
 - c. Appropriate procedures are in place to provide for the safety of the person who is or may be the victim of domestic violence and all other persons present at the mediation.

- (3) Procedures are in place for the mediator to terminate mediation if he or she believes there is continued threat of domestic violence or coercion between the parties.
- (4) Procedures are in place for issuing written findings of fact, as required by R.C. 3109.052, to refer certain cases involving domestic violence to mediation.
- (5) Party/Non-Party Participation
 - a. Parties who are ordered into mediation in cases shall attend scheduled mediation sessions. The court may order parties to return to mediation at any time in cases.
 - b. A judge, magistrate and/or mediator may require the attendance of the parties' attorneys at the mediation sessions if the mediator deems it necessary and appropriate.
 - c. If counsel of any party to the mediation becomes aware of the identity of a person or entity whose consent is required to resolve the dispute, but has not yet been joined as a party in the pleadings, they shall promptly inform the mediator as well as the assigned judge or magistrate.
 - d. If the opposing parties to any case are 1) related by blood, adoption, or marriage; 2) have resided in a common residence, or 3) have known or alleged domestic violence at any time prior to or during the mediation, then the parties and their counsel have a duty to disclose such information to the mediator and have duty to participate in any screening required by the court.
 - e. By participating in mediation a nonparty participant, as defined by R.C. 2710.01(D), agrees to be bound by this rule and submits to the court's jurisdiction to the extent necessary for enforcement of this rule. Any nonparty participant shall have the rights and duties under this rule attributed to parties except as provided by R.C. 2710.03(B) (3) and 2710.04(A) (2).

(6) Confidentiality/Privilege

All mediation communications related to or made during the mediation process are subject to and governed by the "Uniform Mediation Act" (UMA) R.C. 2710.01 to 2710.10, R.C. 3109.052, the Rules of Evidence and any other pertinent judicial rule(s). Statements made during the course of mediation assessments or the mediation sessions are confidential except as outlined in R.C. 2710.03 and R.C. 2701.05. In furtherance of the confidentiality set forth in this rule, parties and non-parties desiring confidentiality of mediation communications shall execute a written "Agreement to Mediate" prior to the mediation session. If a new or different person(s) attend a subsequent session, their signatures shall be obtained prior to proceeding further in the process.

(7) Mediator Conflicts of Interest

In accordance with R.C. 2710.08(A) and (B), the Mediator assigned by the Court to conduct a mediation shall disclose to the mediation parties, counsel, if applicable, and any nonparty participants any known possible conflicts that may affect the Mediator's impartiality as soon as such conflict(s) become known to the Mediator. If counsel or a mediation party requests that the assigned Mediator withdraw because of the facts so disclosed, the assigned Mediator should withdraw and request that the assigned Judge or Magistrate appoint another Mediator from the list of qualified Mediators that is maintained by the Court. The parties shall be free to retain the mediator by an informed, written waiver of the conflict of interest(s).

(8) Termination

If the assigned Mediator determines that further mediation efforts would be of no benefit to the parties, he or she shall inform all interested parties and the Court that the mediation is terminated using the procedure required by this Court.

(9) Stay of Proceedings

All remaining court orders shall continue in effect. No order is stayed or suspended during the mediation process except by written court order. Mediation shall not stay discovery, which may continue through the mediation process in accordance with applicable rules, unless agreed upon by the parties and approved by the judge or magistrate assigned to the case.

(10) Continuances of scheduled mediations shall be granted only for good cause shown.

(11) Guardian Ad Litem

may be signed by the parties and counsel (if the "Mediation Memorandum" is signed it will not be privileged pursuant to R.C. 2710.05 (A) (1)). The written "Mediation Memorandum of Understanding" may become an order of the court after review and approval by the parties and their attorney, if applicable. No oral agreement by counsel or with parties or an officer of the court will be regarded unless made in open court.

(13) Mediator Report

At the conclusion of the mediation and in compliance with R.C. 2710.06 the court shall be informed of the status of the mediation including all of the following:

- a. Whether the mediation occurred or was terminated;
- b. Whether a settlement was reached on some, all or none of the issues; and
- c. Future mediation session(s), including date and time.

This motion has been scheduled for a pre-hearing conference and/or uncontested hearing on _____, at _____m. before Magistrate _____. The parties, with or without counsel, shall be present on the above date at the second floor of the Dayton-Montgomery County Courts Building, 301 W. Third Street, Dayton, Ohio.

[Boldfaced type and capitalization shall be used as indicated above.]

The pre-hearing will be conducted for the same purposes as outlined in Mont. D.R. Rule 4.19 and require the same preparation by counsel or pro se litigant, e.g., disputed issues, discovery issues, appointment of guardian ad litem/psychologist, expected time needed for hearing. If service made on the other party is valid, and there is a failure by that party or counsel to appear, an uncontested custody hearing may take place.

If the request to modify is based upon the relocation of either party then the motion shall also indicate where the relocating party is moving. The caption shall identify all relief being sought. When scheduling the hearing, counsel or the pro se litigant shall be responsible to inform the assignment commissioner of the amount of time needed to hear the entire motion for each claim for relief.

(G) Counter-Motions

Except in CSEA cases, a party served with a motion may file a counter-motion and may schedule his/her counter-motion for the same hearing date as the initial motion with approval of the assignment commissioner. Counsel or the pro se litigant shall obtain approval from the assignment commissioner before using the same hearing date for his/her counter-motion.

RULE 4.42
MOTIONS TO SHOW CAUSE (CONTEMPT)

(A) Content of Motion. Any motion to show cause shall clearly state:

- (1) Each provision of a prior court order with which the party has failed to comply;
- (2) The date of the prior order; and
- (3) The facts regarding the claim of non-compliance; and
- (4) The motion shall be supported by an affidavit signed by the party.

(B) Notice. Every summons issued with a show cause motion shall include a Notice satisfying R.C. Section 2705.031 [See Appendix, Form 13]. Initial service shall be personal service upon the contemnor.

(C) Order. Every motion to show cause shall be filed with an “Order to Show Cause” [See Appendix, Form 14]

(D) Motions for Nonsupport. When a motion to show cause alleging failure to comply with a support order is heard, the CSEA will provide a payment history to the court PRIOR TO the time of hearing. However, if the records of the CSEA are disputed, it is the responsibility of the party disputing the records to compel the attendance of a witness from the CSEA.

(E) Medical Bills or Other Support Obligations. When the motion alleges nonpayment of medical/dental bills or support other than periodic payments (i.e. private school tuition), the motion shall include an itemization of the bills – as an attachment and shall state whether a demand for payment has been made. [Use Appendix, Form 15 for all healthcare expense requests. Provide a copy to the opposing party and bring the original to the hearing.]

(F) Interest. If interest on unpaid periodic support is being sought, the party must include a request for interest in the motion and shall submit a proposed computation of the interest at the time of hearing. (See R.C. 3123.17)

(G) Indigent Respondents. In any case in which a party may be subject to incarceration, he or she is entitled to representation. Individuals will be referred to the public defender on all cases prosecuted by the State of Ohio pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. In cases in which the public defender has a conflict and those cases filed by private counsel on behalf of an obligee, the court will appoint counsel for an ~~that~~ indigent party upon his or her request. Individuals for whom counsel is appointed are required to complete the Financial Disclosure/Affidavit of Indigency form prescribed by the Ohio Public Defender Commission. [See Appendix, Form 16] Final determination of indigency will be made by the court.

RULE 4.43 DISMISSAL OF MOTIONS FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

Motions may be dismissed after six (6) months for failure to perfect service [Civ.R. 4(E)] or for want of prosecution [Civ.R. 41(B)(1)] after the filing thereof, if the court finds that the motion has not been served upon the respondent, or that no agreed entry has been filed. Notice to counsel shall be given pursuant to Civil Rule 41(B)(1).

RULE 4.44 OBJECTIONS TO MAGISTRATE DECISION AND MOTION TO SET ASIDE A MAGISTRATE ORDER

(A) Content. Objections to a magistrate decision, filed by a party pursuant to Civil Rule 53(D)(3)(b), shall be specific and state with particularity the grounds thereof. Such objections shall specify whether they are directed to the findings of fact, the conclusions of law, or both. If the objections are to the findings of facts, they must state the specific finding(s) objected to or the specific finding(s) the party asserts was improperly omitted from or included in the decision. The transcript from the hearing must be filed for any objection to findings of fact or an affidavit of evidence must be filed if the transcript is not available.

See Mont. D.R. Rule 4.46 when filing an objection to a magistrate decision pertaining to the granting or denial of a petition for a domestic civil protection order.

(B)(1) Time. Objections shall be filed within fourteen (14) days of the filing of the magistrate decision, or the filing of written findings of facts and conclusions of law pursuant to Civil Rule 52, if applicable. Such time period may be extended for good cause shown. The motion must be filed prior to the expiration of the original fourteen (14) day period and brought to the attention of the judge assigned to the case.

(B)(2) Stays. The filing of objections automatically stays the Magistrate Decision, unless the stay is modified by court order.

(C) Reply. A party may file a reply in opposition to the objections within ten (10) days of the filing of objections. An extension of time for filing a reply may be obtained for the same reason and upon the same terms as set forth in subsection (B)(1) of this rule. A time-stamped copy of the reply should be delivered to the assigned judge to ensure prompt consideration.

(D) Transcript Notice. When a transcript of proceedings before a magistrate is ordered pursuant to this rule and Mont. D.R. Rule 4.45 (Transcripts and Exhibits) for the court's consideration in ruling upon objections, the objections shall state that a transcript of the proceedings has been ordered. Failure to so state or file and serve upon the court reporter a praecipe for a transcript with appropriate deposit, may cause the court to rule on the objections as if no transcript had been ordered.

(E) Supplemental Objections. If a party desires to supplement the objections after the transcript is filed, such party shall so state in the objections and request an extension of time. The original objections and the request for extension to supplement the objections, must be filed within the original fourteen (14) day objection period. The supplemental objections shall be filed within fourteen (14) days of the filing of the transcript.

(F) Hearings on Objections. No hearing will be held on objections unless specifically ordered by the court. [Civ.R. 53(D)(4)]

(G) Motion to set aside magistrate order. Said motion shall comply with the requirements of Civ.R. 53(D)(2)(b). The motion shall state the moving party's reasons with particularity. The motion shall be filed no later than ten (10) days after the magistrate order is filed. The motion to set the magistrate order aside does not stay the effectiveness of the magistrate order. The moving party may petition the court for an order to stay the magistrate order. Transcripts of the proceedings are not required by rule.

RULE 4.45 TRANSCRIPTS AND EXHIBITS

(A) Ordering Copy. If a party intends to object or appeal that a finding or conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to the evidence, that party shall provide a transcript of all evidence relevant to such findings or conclusions. The party shall file a praecipe with the Clerk of Courts for the transcript. This shall be served upon the court reporter on the same date as the filing of an objection or a notice of appeal. Within fourteen (14) days of the filing of praecipe, the party shall deposit with the court reporter the cost of the transcript. The cost for preparation of the original transcript is hereby set at $3.95 per page, payable to the court reporter. Request for an expedited original transcript will be fulfilled at a rate of $6.00 per page, payable to the court reporter. Once completed, the original transcript will be filed with the Clerk of Courts as part of the official record. The requesting party will be provided a copy of the transcript. Additional copies may be obtained from the Clerk of Courts at the current public record rate.

If the hearing was recorded, the praecipe shall be served upon the court reporter for the administrative judge. Copies of FTR audio recorded hearings may be obtained at a cost of $2.25 per disc, payable to the Clerk of Courts.

Once an original transcript is prepared, an electronic copy by electronic transfer may be obtained at no cost.

In proceedings where objections have been filed, if no deposit is received within fourteen (14) days, the court reporter shall notify the assigned judge who may proceed to rule upon the objections. Within forty (40) days of the date of service, the party must cause the transcript to be filed by the court reporter, unless for cause shown, the court upon motion filed within the prescribed time, extends the time for one additional forty (40) day period. Any further requests for extensions in appellate proceedings must be sought from the appropriate court. (See Appellate Rule 9.)

(B) Filing. All original transcripts shall be filed by the court reporter with the Clerk of Courts and shall thereby become part of the official record of the case. The court reporter shall immediately notify both parties or their counsel and the court that a transcript has been filed. The ordering party will pay for the original transcript as outlined above. The court will not assess transcript fees as administrative costs.

(C) Transcript Availability. A transcript is "available" for purposes of objections [Civil Rule 53(D)(3)(b)(iii)] and appeals [Appellate Rule 9(C)] if a record of the proceedings was preserved by stenographic or audio-electronic means. A transcript is "unavailable" if no such means was used to preserve a record of the proceedings. A statement of the evidence may be accepted by the court as a substitute for an "unavailable" transcript provided such affidavit be either (1) an agreed statement of the evidence; or (2) when an agreement cannot be reached, either or both parties may prepare a statement of the evidence that is submitted to and approved by the judge or magistrate who heard the case.

Upon failure of a party to timely order, deposit payment for, cause to be filed an available transcript, or to timely file a statement of the evidence when appropriate, the court may:

- (1) As to objections, adopt any finding of fact in a magistrate decision without further consideration and rule upon those objections accordingly; or
- (2) As to appeals, overrule a motion for extension of the time for transmitting the record pursuant to Appellate Rule 10(C).

(D) Exhibits. Exhibits will be held for a period of one (1) year from the date of the final entry or judgment in the case. Parties desiring return of exhibits should make application to the court within the one year period. All exhibits, court reporter notes and electronic recordings will be destroyed after a five (5) year time period, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

STANDARD ORDER OF PARENTING TIME
MONTGOMERY COUNTY DOMESTIC RELATIONS COURT

Parents are encouraged to agree on a fair written parenting time schedule that fits their circumstances and their children's lives, with the following serving as a schedule when the parents cannot agree. The parents may change this schedule by agreement. In the event of conflicting dates and times, the following is the order of priority: Children's Birthdays; Mother's/Father's Day; Holidays; Summer/Breaks; Weekends; then Weekdays. If the parents have more than one child, the parenting time will be exercised with all children together. Each parent has a duty to facilitate and encourage the other parent's parenting time with the children.

1. WEEKENDS: The non-residential parent shall have parenting time on alternate weekends from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m. (Exception – not applicable during summer vacation)
2. WEEKDAY: The non-residential parent shall have parenting time from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. each Wednesday evening or another weekday evening by agreement. (Exception – not applicable during summer vacation)
3. HOLIDAYS: The non-residential parent shall have the children on the holidays in Column 1 in odd-numbered years and the holidays in Column 2 in the even-numbered years. The residential parent shall have the children on the holidays in Column 1 in even-numbered years and the holidays in Column 2 in odd-numbered years:

COLUMN 1:	COLUMN 2:
Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Easter Sunday Fourth of July Beggar's Night (6:00 to 9:00 p.m.)	Presidents Day Memorial Day Labor Day Thanksgiving Day

Parenting time shall be from 9:00 a.m. the day of the holiday until 9:00 p.m., except for Beggar's Night as observed in that parent's community. When the holiday falls on a Monday immediately following a non-residential parenting time weekend, the non-residential parent shall be entitled to keep the children continuously from 6:00 p.m. Friday to 6:00 p.m. Monday.

4. MOTHER'S/FATHER'S DAY: On Mother's Day (the 2nd Sunday in May) and Father's Day (the 3rd Sunday in June), the parties shall agree in writing which parent shall have the child(ren) from 9:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. In the absence of a written agreement, in all even-numbered years the residential parent is awarded the 2nd Sunday in May and the non-residential parent is awarded the 3rd Sunday in June. In all odd-numbered years the reverse shall apply.
5. CHRISTMAS BREAK: In all even-numbered years, the residential parent shall have the children from 9:00 a.m. the day after school recesses (or 9:00 a.m. on December 20 if the children are not in school), until 9:00 p.m. December 24 and the non-residential parent shall have the children from 9:00 p.m. December 24 through 6:00 p.m. January 1. In all odd-numbered years the reverse shall apply.
6. BIRTHDAYS: In odd-numbered years, the non-residential parent shall have all the children on each child's birthday from 6:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. In even-numbered years, residential parent shall have all the children on each child's birthday from 6:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.
7. SPRING BREAKS: In odd-numbered years the non-residential parent shall have all the children for the spring break from school, starting at 9:00 a.m. the day after school recesses to 6:00 p.m. the Sunday before school resumes. The residential parent shall have the children for spring break in the even-numbered years. If all the children are not of school age, the Saturday before Easter through the Friday after Easter shall be substituted.
8. SUMMER VACATION: The parties shall exercise summer parenting time in alternating one week increments beginning the first Friday after the last day of school. Each period shall begin on Friday at 6:00 p.m. until the following Friday at 6:00 p.m. The alternate parenting week schedule shall continue until the children are scheduled to return to school. In the odd numbered years, the non-residential parent shall start the first week. In the even numbered years, the residential parent shall start the first week.

If either party is employed by an employer that has an annual mandatory shut-down, that party shall have priority for parenting time during that period. If both parents have an identical shut-down period, the non-residential parent shall have priority. If the mandatory shut-down period creates a conflict with the alternating week schedule, the parties shall trade an equal amount of time as make-up for the lost shut-down parenting time.

Mid weekday and alternating weekend parenting time shall be suspended during summer vacation parenting time. Child support will not be reduced during summer parenting time.

Each parent shall provide the other parent with destination, time of departure and arrival, phone number for emergency purposes, and mode of travel and flight numbers. In all cases, this summer vacation schedule ends at 6:00 p.m. the Friday before classes resume. That Friday the children shall be returned to the residential parent. Effective that Friday, the weekend and weekday parenting times pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 above shall resume. The non-residential parent's first alternating weekend shall begin the following weekend.

9. LATE PICK-UP: The residential parent shall have the children ready for pick-up at the start of all parenting time. The children and the residential parent have no duty to wait for the non-residential parent to arrive for parenting time more than thirty (30) minutes, unless notified. The non-residential parent who arrives more than thirty minutes late without prior notification for a particular parenting time forfeits that parenting time, unless the residential parent agrees otherwise.

10. DROP-OFF: The non-residential parent will not return the children early from parenting time unless the parents agree to a different drop-off time in advance. The residential parent or other adult well-known to the children must be present when the children are returned from parenting time.

11. CANCELING NON-RESIDENTIAL PARENTING TIME: Except in emergency situations, the non-residential parent must give at least 24 hours advance notice when canceling any parenting time.

12. MAKE-UP NON-RESIDENTIAL PARENTING TIME: Make-up days shall be given if an emergency prevents scheduled parenting time. When requested by non-residential parent, all make-up parenting time shall be rescheduled and exercised within sixty (60) days of that emergency.

13. MEDICAL TREATMENT AND EMERGENCIES: If the children become seriously ill or injured, each parent shall notify the other parent as soon as practicable. If the children become ill or injured during their time with the non-residential parent, said parent, shall contact the residential parent to secure treatment unless the situation is a medical emergency.

14. TELEPHONE/MAIL OR ELECTRONIC: Neither parent shall interfere with written, voice, or electronic communications between the children and the other parent. Long-distance calls from an out of town parent shall be at that parent's expense. Non-emergency phone calls should be limited to one per day before 8:00 p.m. EST.

15. TRANSPORTATION: The non-residential parent has responsibility for transportation of the children to and from their home for parenting time with them and may use another adult well-known to the children for picking up or dropping off the children when necessary. Any person transporting the children may not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs, and must be a licensed, insured driver. All child restraint and seat-belt laws must be observed by the driver. Car seats should be exchanged when required.

16. SCHOOL WORK: Parents shall provide time for children to study and complete homework assignments, even if the completion of work interferes with the parent's plans for the children. The residential parent is responsible for providing the non-residential parent all of the school assignments and books. Summer school which is necessary for a child must be attended, regardless of which parent has the child during the summer school period.

17. EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: Regardless of where the children are living, their continued participation in extracurricular activities, school related or otherwise, should not be interrupted. It shall be the responsibility of the parent with whom the children are residing at the time to discuss the scheduling of such activities with the children and to provide transportation to the activities. Each parent shall provide the other parent with notice of all extracurricular activities, complete with schedules and the name, address and telephone number of the activity leader, if available.

18. OUT-OF-STATE RELOCATION: Neither parent shall relocate the children out of state without first obtaining a modified non-residential parenting time order. The parties may submit an agreed order modifying parenting time, with a provision for allocation of transportation expenses, to the court for adoption by the court as an order. If the parents are unable to agree, the moving parent shall, prior to relocation, 1) file a motion asking the court to modify the parenting time schedule, 2) set a hearing, and 3) obtain a modified parenting time order. No continuances of the hearing will be granted without written permission of the assigned judge.

19. ACCESS TO RECORDS: The non-residential parent shall have access to the same records, same school activities and to any day-care center which the children attend on the same basis that said records or access is legally permitted to the residential parent, unless a restrictive order has been obtained from the court. It is the responsibility of the parent obtaining a restrictive order to serve it on the appropriate organization.

20. NOTICE OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Each parent shall give written notice to the other parent immediately upon any change of address and/or phone number, unless a restrictive order has been obtained from the court. A copy of the notice, including the party's name and case number, shall also be provided to the Domestic Relations Court, P.O. Box 972, 301 W. Third Street, Second Floor, Dayton, Ohio 45422-2160, Attention: Assignment Commissioner.
