

MEDIA RELEASE

RELEASE DATE: February 20, 2009

CONTACT: Cathy Petersen
Communications Director – Montgomery County
(937) 224-3831

9th Annual Brother Raymond L. Fitz Award Luncheon

Doris Edelmann, MPA
Brother Raymond Fitz Award Recipient

Dedicated, incredibly caring, remarkable and always on duty; words and phrases that describe those who truly make a difference in the lives of our children. Doris Edelmann is one of those individuals. For over 20 years, Ms. Edelmann has been a committed child and family advocate as a Child Welfare Caseworker for the Children Services Division of the Montgomery County Department of Job & Family Services.

On Friday, February 20, 2009, The Montgomery County Family and Children First Council recognized Doris Edelmann at the 9th Annual Brother Raymond L. Fitz Award Luncheon. This special event was held from at the Sinclair Community College David H. Ponitz Center.

The Brother Raymond L. Fitz Award honors someone who exemplifies Brother Ray's dedication to nurturing and protecting children and families by his or her daily efforts in the community. Being a Child Welfare Caseworker is so much more than a job for Ms. Edelmann. She is devoted to providing the highest quality of services to children and their families.

The Montgomery County Family and Children First Council coordinates human services programs across the county. The Council established this award to honor Raymond L. Fitz, former president of the University of Dayton, for his years of leadership and service to the community.