ADDENDUM TO 2007-2009 CONTRACT LANGUAGE, MISCELLANEOUS AGREEMENT

Transfer of Emergency Shelter Operations and Staff to Stillwater Center

Process for Implementation

Approve effective January 1, 2009, the transfer of staff, operations and equipment of the Mental Retardation/Developmental Disabilities (MR/DD) Emergency Shelter to Stillwater Center. Implement revised classifications and process personnel actions for affected employees. Amend contract language in Miscellaneous Agreements section to include the following:

Process to award extra time and overtime hours when needed

- First offer to part time staff in area needed (either Stillwater or Shelter)
- Then offer to part time staff in other area (either Stillwater or Shelter)
- Then offer to full time staff in area needed (either Stillwater or Shelter)
- Then offer to full time staff in other area (either Stillwater or Shelter)
- Then, if offer time period has ended (e.g. three (3) days prior to need), arrange for agency staff to fill

Process for training Staff

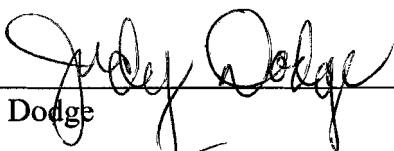

- Stillwater staff desiring to work at the Shelter must first receive and pass management specified training. Such training includes, but is not limited to waiver services documentation, administration of medication through delegated nursing, driving the van, behavior management, and policies and procedures related to the population served or work rules.
- Emergency Shelter staff desiring and/or needed to work at Stillwater must first receive and pass management specified training. Such training includes, but is not limited to self care, repositioning, lifting and using adaptive equipment, and policies and procedures related to the population served or work rules (e.g. breaks/lunch, not passing medications).

Additional Information

- Emergency Shelter staff will not serve a probationary period. Further, these employees (Emergency Shelter staff) will be appointed to the Montgomery County Board of County Commissioners (BCC), Stillwater Center rolls on January 1, 2009. January 1, 2009 will become their overall BCC seniority date.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties to this Agreement (Negotiations to amend contract language, Miscellaneous Agreements, to transfer Emergency Shelter Operations and staff to Stillwater Center, with The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, The Dayton Public Service Union) have set their hands this 30th day of December, 2008.
