

Adam

Born in 2009

Playing outside is Adam's favorite way to spend his time. He enjoys the outdoors, which helps him burn off his energy. He is athletic and coordinated and loves to play football, throw the ball, and explore. Summer is his favorite season because he has time to do his favorite things and does not get bored doing them.

Adam also likes to play video games and listen to rap music. In fact, Adam sings quite well himself, which was discovered after he saw the new Lion King movie. He came home singing all his favorite songs from the movie. His favorite food is pizza, but he also loves to snack on Yoohoo drinks, Hershey bars and salt and vinegar chips.

Adam wants a loving, supportive and patient family who will provide permanency for him with structured daily routines and unconditional love and commitment.
