Active and involved, Chanell is a girl who wants to get things done! Many people describe her as a kind and thoughtful teenage girl.

Chanell is involved with the Youth Works program, Homecoming Committee, and church activities. She has a dream of becoming a sign language interpreter one day.

Chanell enjoys shopping, hanging out with friends, poems, scrapbooking and coloring. While she attends high school, she hopes to also go to cosmetology school. After high school, she wants to attend nursing school.

Chanell’s favorite subjects in school are history, math and science. Chanell is an intelligent teenager and has the potential to meet all her goals. You’ll never be bored with Chanell as part of your family. Your support and guidance can help Chanell meet her goals and lead her to be the successful adult she wants to be.
