

PTOC Benefits:

- FirstBook

In collaboration with the United Way of the Greater Dayton Area, FREE age-appropriate books are mailed to every PTOC child for 12 consecutive months. Both parents receive identical copies to eliminate conflict during transitions. Provides co-parents an opportunity to engage their children during parenting time and encourages early reading.

- Love Them Out Loud

In partnership with Dayton Metro Library, all PTOC infants & toddlers receive a FREE Love Them Out Loud box that includes books and a library card application. It is never too early to start learning!

- Onsite Mediation Services

In partnership with Dayton Mediation Center, parents can customize a PTO, tailored to their family's needs, the same day as their support hearing. Mediations are conducted at the CSEA, but can be scheduled at Dayton Mediation Center. Co-parents can also utilize this FREE service if they need help resolving disputes or improving communication.

- Supportive Services & Resources

All PTOC families get access to a menu of FREE supportive services through various community partnerships, including assistance with health, employment, nutrition, fatherhood, youth services, Comprehensive Case Management \(CCMEP\), education, and library services.

- Co-Parent Education

FREE opportunities are available on a variety of topics and dates through partnerships with Catholic Social Services and Help Me Grow Brighter Futures. Parents who participate get complimentary access to each partner's full menu of supportive services.

- PTOC Newsletters

Seasonally mailed to all PTOC parents and community partners. Provides program updates, co-parenting tips, and information about family-friendly activities and events.

- Specialized Caseload

All PTOC families are given a dedicated caseworker with specialized knowledge of co-parenting services and needs.

- Dedicated Email

Contact MCPTOC@jfs.ohio.gov for questions about co-parenting services, payments, or to submit questions for our Newsletter.

