

Antonia

Born in 2005

She loves to laugh!

Antonia is a girl in need of a forever family. She is very polite and mannerly, and she loves to laugh and be silly. She is outgoing, talkative and very creative with a love of crafts and making things.

She is good at communicating her feelings to others and continues to make progress on controlling her anger and impulses. She has matured over that last few years and is showing independence.

Antonia enjoys school and has good grades and behavior. She is interested in taking gymnastics or dance lessons.

She would like to keep in communication with her younger brother and sister who have been adopted. Antonia loves to give warm hugs and do nice things for others.
