

CDL TRAINING SITE PROPOSAL: DAYTON FOODBANK

- In 2015 the trucking industry was short 48,000 drivers
- Over the next decade, the trucking industry will need to hire 890,000 to keep up with retirement and industry growth
- Median Income: $40,000 (DOL)

Source: Truck Driver Shortage Analysis,
American Trucking Association, 2015

NEED IN THE MARKET

- Montgomery County Development Services is partnering with Butler Tech to provide CDL training services
- Required components include:
 - Classroom Space at Central State University (CSU)
 - Driver Training Space at The Foodbank, Inc.
- Minimum Requirements:
 - 2 Acre Paved Lot
 - Close Proximity to Job Center

- Lot Size: 2 Acres
- Request:
 - Relocate Community Gardens
 - Erect new fencing with access
 - New Water Tap-In
 - Remove Lamp Pole
 - Cap Water (2)
 - Create New Area for Community Gardens

- Income Stream for Foodbank
 - Estimated Rental Income: $3,000 Per Acre/Per Year
 - Total: $6,000 Annual Income
- Opportunity for Collaboration (Foodbank, CSU, County)
- Potential Job/Training Opportunities for Patrons

$6,000 =    Meals

MORE THAN A TRAINING PROGRAM

Michael Colbert

Assistant County Administrator, Development Services

Montgomery County

(937) 225.4582

Michael.Colbert@jfs.ohio.gov

Michael Norton-Smith

Community & Economic Development Specialist

Montgomery County

(937) 224.3848

SmithMN@mcoho.org

