

MEET MADISON

BORN DECEMBER OF 2011

Madison is a sweet and loving child who is inquisitive about his surroundings. He likes to play with fidget spinners and walk around the house.

Madison is learning to be more independent. He loves to eat and is willing to try most foods. He also enjoys listening to music.

Madison is making good academic progress in school and has a way of letting you know what he wants.

He needs a loving and nurturing family who can advocate for his needs and is excited to support him as he continues to grow into a wonderful young man.
