Extended Payment Dates for Military Personnel

Ohio House Bill No. 390, effective March 4, 2002, allows an extension of time for payment of real estate and manufactured home taxes for members of the National Guard and reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States who have been called to active or other duty under Operation Enduring Freedom, Operation Noble Eagle, or the Governor's directive of September 28, 2001, or successors to those directives.

Qualifying Property Includes:

- Property owned by the member described above.
- Property owned by the spouse of such a member. Property owned jointly by such member and that member's spouse or dependent parent.
- Property owned by a dependent parent of such a member who dies during such active duty.

Benefits for Qualified Property:

- Payments of taxes and assessments due during the member's period of active duty and the six months following termination of that duty are delayed until the seventh month after the member's active duty ends.
- If the extended taxes are escrowed with a mortgage payment, the tax payer may request that monthly mortgage payments be reduced by the amount of escrowed taxes for the period of the military member's active service.
