Meet Rocco! He is such a kindhearted teen boy who loves to help others. Rocco loves singing his favorite Elton John songs while wearing his very own collection of Elton John sunglasses.

His favorite pastime is going to Kings Island. Rocco’s most recent accomplishment is being on the honor roll. He enjoys going to school to be with his friends, but also enjoys being homeschooled. Rocco shared that his dream would be to live in a beach house, but nowhere with hurricanes.

He enjoys being a part of his church and attending the youth groups with his current foster parent. Rocco’s goals for his future are to have a big house in the city and to run his own company. Rocco has a younger brother, and he will need to maintain contact with him.

Are you a family that can make this a reality for Rocco?
