

Tatina

Year of Birth 2007

Tatina is outgoing and has a great sense of humor. She likes to joke around and is often laughing. Tatina considers herself an artist and enjoys drawing, photography and painting. This creative young lady likes working with her hands, so she really enjoys playing with LEGOs.

Tatina appreciates track and soccer, and she enjoys watching movies of all kinds. She aspires to visit Paris and London in her future. Tatina is still discovering what her interests are, and she needs an adoptive family who is willing to help guide her through the next stages of her teenage years.

A bright child who tries her best, Tatina can struggle with self-image at times and needs a family who can help her see how great of a child she is. She wants a family that will be supportive of her maintaining contact with her siblings and her current foster parent.
