Dayton Man Indicted for Murder During Robbery

State v. Trashune Young, 2017-CR-3825/2

DAYTON, OH (03/08/2018) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that TRASHUNE YOUNG, 27, of Dayton, has been indicted on multiple counts in connection with the shooting death of Taelor Taylor during a robbery.

On Tuesday, November 28, 2017, Dayton Police received a 911 call reporting the discovery of the deceased body of the victim, Taelor Taylor, on the porch of his North Trenton Street home. The investigation, including surveillance video from the victim's home, showed that a number of individuals, including the defendant, went to the victim's home and during a robbery, fatally shot the victim.

Today, the Montgomery County Grand Jury indicted the defendant on:

- Two counts of Aggravated Murder
- Four counts of Murder
- Two counts of Aggravated Robbery
- Two counts of Aggravated Burglary
- Two counts of Felonious Assault
- One count of Having Weapons While Under Disability

All of the counts except for having weapons while under disability include three-year firearm specifications.

The defendant is currently in custody in the Montgomery County Jail, being held on a $1,000,000 bond. He will be arraigned on Tuesday, March 13, 2018, at 8:30 a.m.

The investigation is ongoing into the other participants involved in the incident.
