BUSINESS SERVICES

Behavioral Health

Youth Resource Center staff can connect you to mental health and drug/alcohol services

Physical Health

Five Rivers Health Centers provides general medical and dental care, screenings, and physicals, along with referrals to resources.

Education

Sinclair's Fast Forward Center reconnects youth ages 16-22 to the school and programs that best meet their needs in order for them to earn their high school diploma.

Job Corps informs and recruits low-income youth ages 16-24 who would like to complete high school and/or gain certificate based training and experience that will help them begin a career of their choice.

Housing

Youth Resource Center staff can connect you to shelter or housing based on your needs and offer training that covers lease terms and other related topics to enhance housing stability.

Orientation

Schedule a time for your organization's staff and/or youth to get a tour and learn more about resources available at the Youth Resource Center.

Employment

Goodwill Easter Seals conducts an intake and assessment process to establish assistance with employment and/or other services that Goodwill can provide.

Montgomery County Development Services

-Youth Career Services assists youth in developing foundational life skills for managing personal growth, interpersonal relationships and career development. This is accomplished through the following programs:

YouthWorks is Montgomery County's job training and development program.

- Work experience and guidance program (14-18 years of age)
- Summer (June-August)
- Fall (October-December)

WIOA Youth - provides in-school and out-of-school youth ages 16-24 who have barriers to employment with the opportunity to get the education, training and support needed to access good jobs and advance their careers.

County Agencies
