FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ann K. Gramza
Promoted to Violent Crimes Bureau

DAYTON, OH (5/19/2022) – Montgomery County Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced that Ms. Ann K. Gramza has been promoted to the Violent Crimes Bureau of the Criminal Division of the Montgomery County Prosecutor's Office. The Violent Crimes Bureau handles the prosecution of homicide and other high-profile cases in Montgomery County.

Ms. Gramza received her law degree from The Ohio State University College of Law in 2000. In 1997, she received her undergraduate degree from Miami University, in Oxford, Ohio, majoring in Diplomacy and Foreign Affairs, with a minor in Economics.

Ann was an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in Shelby County, Ohio from August 2002 to April 2005. Ann joined our office in April 2005 as an Assistant Montgomery County Prosecuting Attorney. In January 2011, she was promoted to the Supervising Attorney of the Child Protection Unit. Ann then left our office in March 2013 to serve as the CASA Program Manager at the Montgomery County Juvenile Court. In September 2016, Ann returned to our office as a Criminal Docket Attorney, and a year later she was promoted to the position of Supervising Attorney of the Grand Jury/Intake Section. In January 2019, Ann was promoted to the position of Chief of the Juvenile Division of the Prosecutor's Office.

Prosecutor Heck continued, "Ann has extensive experience as a trial attorney and has handled a variety of cases, including violent crimes. She has done an exemplary job as Chief of the Juvenile Division. I believe she will be an excellent addition to the Violent Crimes Bureau."

Ann is married and resides in Oakwood.
