Dayton Man Indicted for Fighting With Police

State v. Bruce Broyles, Jr., 2023-CR-1194

DAYTON, OH (04/28/2023) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that BRUCE LEVERE BROYLES, JR., 38, of Dayton, has been indicted on counts in connection to fighting and injuring Dayton Police Officers during an incident that occurred on April 20, 2023.

On the night of Thursday, April 20, 2023, Dayton officers were dispatched on an assault complaint at 440 Dayton Towers Drive. Upon arrival, they located the assault victim and the defendant. As officers attempted to arrest the defendant for assault, he physically resisted arrest, punching a Dayton officer in the face multiple times. Another officer attempted to intervene, and the defendant bit that officer before attempting to strangle the officer. Eventually, the officers were able to subdue the defendant and arrest him.

Today, the Montgomery County Grand Jury indicted the defendant for:

- One count of Felonious Assault on a Police Officer causing serious physical harm
- One count of Strangulation – substantial risk of serious physical harm
- One count of Aggravated Burglary – physical harm
- One count of Abduction
- One count of Assault on a Police Officer
- One count of Obstructing Official Business

The defendant is currently being held in the Montgomery County Jail on a $100,000 bond. He will be arraigned on Tuesday, May 2, 2023, at 8:30 a.m.
