Man Indicted for Printing Child Porn at Oakwood Library
Facing 120 Additional Counts

State v. Octavious Davidson, III, 2022-CR-1291

DAYTON, OH (06/17/2022) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that OCTAVIOUS V. DAVIDSON, III, 59, of Dayton, has been indicted on 120 additional counts for creating and possession of child pornography.

On Monday, May 2, 2022, Oakwood police were dispatched to the Wright Memorial Library after employees located several sexually-explicit printouts of juvenile females. Further investigation identified the defendant as the library patron who had downloaded and printed the images.

On May 16, 2022, the Montgomery County Grand Jury indicted the defendant for:

- 24 counts of Illegal Use of Minor in Nudity-Oriented Material or Performance
- Two counts of Pandering Sexually-Oriented Material Involving Minor
- 4 counts of Pandering Obscenity Involving a Minor

The defendant was arraigned and has been referred for a competency and sanity evaluation.

Today, after further investigation, the Montgomery County Grand Jury has indicted the defendant on additional counts:

- 88 counts of Pandering Obscenity Involving Minor
- 32 counts of Pandering Sexually-Oriented Material Involving Minor

Prosecutor Heck continued, “Incredibly, this defendant has been downloading and printing sexually explicit images of children while at the library. This conduct is wrong on so many levels, including printing these pictures at the public library where children are present.”

The defendant remains in jail since his May 5, 2022 arrest, being held on a $25,000 bond.
