

The Prosecutor's Report

from Mat Heck, Jr., Prosecuting Attorney

Sentencings

In January, 2017, we disposed of 241 cases. The Judges sentenced the defendants in those cases as follows:

- 56.0% received Community Control Sanctions (probation)
- 32.4% received a prison sentence
- 5.4% received local time or local time plus probation
- 4.5% were granted Intervention in Lieu of Conviction (ILC)

Some notable sentences:

- 1/10/2017 Julian Cook was sentenced to seven years in prison for his convictions on three counts of aggravated robbery with a deadly weapon. Cook robbed a couple of Dollar General stores in Dayton.
- 1/17/2017 Kiara Scales was sentenced to 36 months in prison and had her driver's license suspended for 10 years. Scales was convicted on two counts of aggravated vehicular homicide and two counts of vehicular assault for a traffic crash that occurred on July 6, 2014 in Dayton.
- 1/17/2017 Paul Ivkovich was sentenced to four years in prison and received a lifetime driver's license suspension. Ivkovich was convicted on two counts of aggravated vehicular homicide for a traffic crash that occurred on April 30, 2015 in Dayton.
- 1/25/2017 Amber Singleton received a six months sentenced for her convictions on two counts of tampering with coin machines and two counts of breaking and entering, for breaking into coin machines at laundromats. Her sentence was added to the 4 year prison sentence she received in an unrelated case in which she was convicted of illegal conveyance of drugs of abuse onto the grounds of a detention facility, for trying to sneak heroin into the jail.
- 1/30/2017 Michael Patterson was sentenced to 12 months in prison and received a four year driver's license suspension. Patterson was convicted of his 4th OVI in less than six years.
- 1/31/2017 Ryan Meno was sentenced to five years of community control sanctions and 90 days of electronic home detention. Meno was a Kettering Police Detective and was convicted on one count of theft of drugs, one count of

JANUARY'S STAFF ADDITIONS

Bryan R. Moore

On January 6, 2017, Mr. Bryan R. Moore joined the staff of the prosecutor's office as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney.

Bryan was an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in Licking County, Ohio from October 2013 until January 2017, handling felony criminal trials.

Bryan received his law degree in 2009 from Capital University Law School in Columbus, Ohio, and received his undergraduate degree in 2006 from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, majoring in Business.

Bryan is originally from Cincinnati, and graduated from St. Xavier High School.

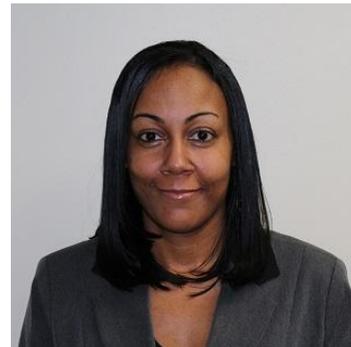

Cetecia Peterson

On January 30, 2017, Ms. Cetecia Peterson joined the staff of the prosecutor's office as a legal secretary in the Delinquent Tax Assessment and Collections Unit.

Cetecia came to our office from the City of Dayton Prosecutor's Office, where she worked in the Licence Intervention Program from 2007-2016. Prior to that, she was a Legal Assistant in the Dayton Municipal Court, from 2003-2007.

Cetecia graduated with an Associate Degree in Paralegal/Legal Assisting in 1999 from RETS Tech.

Cetecia is a native Daytonian.

Brooklyn McGinnis

On January 30, 2017, Ms. Brooklyn McGinnis joined the prosecutor's office staff. Brooklyn is a legal secretary in the Delinquent Tax Assessment and Collections Unit.

Brooklyn previously was employed by Enterprise Car Rental from 2014-2016. Prior to that, she was employed by the Rising Star Casino in Rising Sun, Indiana.

Brooklyn received her Bachelor's degree in Communications from Northern Kentucky University in 2013.

Brooklyn is proud to have been born and raised in Brookville, Ohio, where she currently resides.

NOTEWORTHY NEWS

Mr. Daniel Brandt Named Citizen of the Year

On December 8, 2016, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Daniel Brandt was named 2016 Citizen of the Year at the Miami Valley Crimes Stoppers annual luncheon.

Dan has been with the office since August, 1997. In February, 2007 he was promoted from Criminal Docket Attorney to the Violent Crimes Bureau, where he was worked ever since. The Violent Crimes Bureau handles the prosecution of the most violent cases in the office, including Capitol Offense cases, where the defendant faces the death penalty.

Dan received his law degree in 1997 from the University of Toledo College of Law.

Prosecutor Heck said, "We are very proud of Dan's accomplishments. He is very deserving of this award."

The Prosecutor's Report is the monthly newsletter to the community from the Montgomery County Prosecutor's Office.

If you would like additional information on any of the topics discussed, or have questions or comments, please feel free to contact us at 937-225-5757 or via email to info@mcpo.com.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE

