FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dayton Man Guilty of Murder
State v. Michael Felton, 2015-CR-1818

DAYTON, OH (11/2/2015) – Prosecutor Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that 24-year-old Michael Antjuan Felton, of Dayton, has been found guilty as charged for the shooting death of 44-year-old John Turner, Jr., also of Dayton.

On June 16, 2015, the victim and the defendant were in an altercation involving a female mutual acquaintance. During the altercation, the defendant produced a handgun and fatally shot the victim in the parking lot of a Norris Drive apartment complex. There were numerous witnesses to the shooting, including the victim child, who is a minor.

Today, the defendant was found guilty of Murder, Felonious Assault, Tampering with Evidence and Having Weapons While Under Disability.

The defendant was barred from legally possessing a firearm because he was previously convicted in 2012 of burglary, which is an offense of violence. Additionally, in 2010 the defendant was convicted of carrying concealed weapons.

The defendant will be sentenced on Tuesday, November 10, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. He will be sentenced to 15 years to life.
