Columbus Woman Sentenced to Prison for Assault on Deputy Sheriff

State v. Brooklynn Frazier, 2022-CR-0547

DAYTON, OH (05/26/2022) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced that BROOKLYNN DANTREA FRAZIER, 24, of Columbus, Ohio, was sentenced to 10 years in prison after being convicted of assaulting a Montgomery County Deputy Sheriff with a motor vehicle.

On the evening of Tuesday, February 22, 2022, Sheriff's Deputies conducted a traffic stop on a suspected stolen vehicle in the area of North Dixie Drive and Stop Eight Road in Harrison Township. Two cruisers stopped the vehicle the defendant was driving, one in front and one behind it. A deputy exited his patrol vehicle and started walking toward the defendant's vehicle. The defendant reversed the vehicle, then abruptly drove forward, striking the deputy and causing him to land on the hood and windshield. The deputy discharged his duty weapon at the defendant, striking her in the arm. The deputy was then tossed from the hood and landed at the intersection of North Dixie Drive and Stop Eight Road.

The defendant fled from the scene, driving towards Webster Street. Police located the defendant and pursued her onto I-75 northbound, eventually stopping the defendant and taking her into custody just south of Tipp City, in Miami County.

The deputy was transported to the hospital and treated for his injuries. He was released from the hospital the next day.

On May 12, 2022, the defendant entered a plea and was found guilty by the court on one count of felonious assault on a police officer causing serious harm.

On May 25, 2022, the defendant was sentenced to serve 10 years in the penitentiary.
