FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Charge Approved on Union Homeowner for Explosives
State v. Connell Gubser, 2021-CR-0396

DAYTON, OH (02/04/2021) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that a count of ILLEGAL MANUFACTURING OR PROCESSING OF EXPLOSIVES, a second-degree felony, has been approved on CONNELL T. GUBSER, 68, of Union, for an incident that occurred on February 2, 2021.

On February 2, 2021, police were dispatched to a residence on Warner Drive on a report of an explosion. Inside the defendant's home were located a significant number of chemicals that are used to make explosives. The defendant was attempting to make "flash powder" which is considered an explosive.

The defendant is currently in custody in the Montgomery County Jail. We will be asking that he be held on a high bond.

The case will be presented to the Montgomery County Grand Jury in the near future.
