FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dayton Man Indicted for Murders of Three Men Inside Dayton Home
State v. Octavius Humphrey, 2020-CR-3896

DAYTON, OH (12/21/2020) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that OCTAVIUS LAMONT HUMPHREY, 41, of Dayton, has been indicted on counts in connection to the shooting deaths of three men on November 24, 2020.

On the evening of Tuesday, November 24, 2020, Dayton police were dispatched on a report of three people who had been shot inside a home on North Gettysburg Avenue. Upon arrival, entry was made into the home where the deceased bodies of Dontay Alston, Michael Jackson, and Justin Wilson were discovered. All three victims had been fatally shot.

Further investigation identified the defendant as the shooter. A search warrant was served on his Morgan Avenue home, where three firearms were located, believed to be unrelated to the murders. The defendant has previously been convicted on drug crimes, as well as a crime of violence. Therefore, he is barred from possessing any firearms.

Today, the Montgomery County Grand Jury indicted the defendant for:

- Six counts of Murder
- Three counts of Felonious Assault with a Deadly Weapon
- Three counts of Felonious Assault causing Serious Physical Harm
- One count of Having Weapons While Under Disability – prior offense of violence
- One count of Having Weapons While Under Disability – prior drug conviction

All of the murder and felonious assault counts also include 3-year firearm specifications.

The defendant was previously indicted on December 4, 2020 on counts for possessing the firearms located in his home.

The defendant is currently being held in the Montgomery County Jail on a $1,000,000 bond. He is scheduled to be arraigned on Tuesday, December 29, 2020, at 8:30 a.m.
