Man Indicted for Murder of 65-Year-Old Woman

State v. Deantre Lloyd, 2022-CR-2268

DAYTON, OH (08/22/2022) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that DEANTRE MAURICE LLOYD, 42, of Dayton, has been indicted for the murder of Glenda Annett Pope inside her Wentworth Avenue apartment on August 12, 2022.

On the evening of Friday, August 12, 2022, Dayton police were dispatched to an apartment on Wentworth Avenue after receiving a 911 call that someone was being stabbed and a woman was heard screaming. Upon arrival, the apartment manager let the officers inside the building and as they were going toward the apartment in question, the defendant came out of the apartment and quickly walked away from the officers. After a brief foot chase, the defendant was stopped by the officers.

Inside the apartment, officers discovered the deceased body of 65-year-old Glenda Pope, who had been stabbed multiple times.

Today, the Montgomery County Grand Jury indicted the defendant for:

- Two counts of Murder
- One count of Felonious Assault with a Deadly Weapon
- One count of Felonious Assault causing Serious Physical Harm

The defendant is currently in custody in the Montgomery County jail, being held on a $1,000,000 bond. He will be arraigned on Thursday, August 25, 2022 at 8:30 am.
