Convicted Sex Offender Indicted for Rape of 6-Year-Old

State v. Jesse Maddex, 2020-CR-2645

DAYTON, OH (09/03/2020) – Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that JESSE MADDEX, 48, of Dayton, has been indicted for sexually assaulting a six-year-old child.

On Wednesday, August 26, 2020, the victim, a six-year-old child, disclosed to his mother that the defendant had sexually assaulted him the previous day. The mother went to the defendant's residence to confront him and called the Dayton Police Department. Further investigation, including interviews of the victim and the defendant, confirmed the sexual assault. It was also learned the defendant had previously sexually assaulted the child on at least two other occasions, in multiple locations.

In 2004, the defendant was convicted of Gross Sexual Imposition of a child under 13 years of age and was designated a Sexually Oriented Offender.

Today, the Montgomery County Grand Jury indicted the defendant for:

- Six counts of Rape of a Child less than 10 years of age
- Three counts of Gross Sexual Imposition of a child less than 13 years of age

Prosecutor Heck added, "This defendant has again sexually assaulted an innocent child. Parents need to know who their children are spending time with to adequately protect them from sex offenders. Thankfully, this brave six-year-old victim disclosed the defendant's reprehensible and inexcusable actions."

The defendant is currently in custody in the Montgomery County Jail, being held on a $250,000 bond. He will be arraigned on Tuesday, September 8, 2020, at 8:30 a.m.
