Ms. Meagan Woodall Appointed as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney

DAYTON, OH (12/2/2015) – Montgomery County Prosecuting Attorney Mat Heck, Jr. announced that Ms. Meagan Woodall has been appointed to the position of Assistant Montgomery County Prosecuting Attorney.

Ms. Woodall received her law degree from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law in 2015. She received her undergrad degree from The Ohio State University in 2012, majoring in political science and Spanish.

While in law school, Meagan worked at the Franklin County Prosecutor's Office in Columbus, Ohio. She also interned at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Meagan will be assigned to the Appellate Division of the Prosecutor's Office. The Appellate Division is responsible for preparing and arguing all appeals of criminal and civil cases in which Montgomery County is a party. Attorneys in this division spend extensive time doing legal research, preparing written briefs, and arguing cases before the Second District Court of Appeals, Federal courts, and the Ohio Supreme Court.

Meagan is originally from Centerville, Ohio.
