FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mr. Ward C. Barrentine
Appointed as Chief Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Civil Division

DAYTON, OH (04/30/2019) – Prosecutor Mat Heck, Jr. announced today that Mr. Ward C. Barrentine has been appointed to the position of Chief Assistant Prosecuting Attorney of the Civil Division of the Prosecutor’s Office.

Mr. Barrentine received his undergraduate degrees in History and Political Science from the University of Michigan in 1997. He then attended the University of Dayton School of Law and received his law degree in 2001. Mr. Barrentine joined the Prosecutor’s Office in August 2001 and was assigned to the former Child Support Enforcement Division. In September 2002, he was transferred to the Intake/Grand Jury Division, and a year later was transferred to the Criminal Division as a Criminal Docket Attorney. In September 2011, Mr. Barrentine was promoted to the position of Supervising Attorney of the Consumer Fraud Unit and as a Criminal Trial Supervisor.

Mr. Barrentine is married and lives in Oakwood with his wife and their two children.

Prosecutor Heck continued, “Ward has been an outstanding trial attorney and supervisor. I believe he will continue to do an excellent job as the chief of my Civil Division. Ward has the knowledge and supervisory experience necessary to excel in this challenging position.”
