LexisNexis Training at the Law Library for CLE Credit

On Thursday, December 19, 2014, training on search techniques for LexisNexis research will be available in the media center of the Law Library. From 9:30 A.M. – 10:30 A.M. a review of basic search techniques will be held. From 11:00 – Noon, a review of advanced search techniques will be offered. Each session has been approved for 1 hour of CLE credit.

To register, please contact Susan Worley at the Law Library, at 225-4496, or via email at sworley@daylawlib.org. Space is limited in the media center to a maximum of 14 at each session.

Subscriber Invoices Have Been Mailed — Additional Benefits Ahead

Invoices for the Law Library’s annual subscriber fee of $50 were mailed to registered attorneys in October. Benefits for Law Library subscribers include those indicated in the chart below. Upon receipt of payment, passwords are mailed to each subscriber which provide remote access to selected databases via the Law Library’s web site.

In addition, negotiations are underway for the Law Library to offer to subscribers, at no cost, remote access to informational webinars on timely topics. Produced by various vendors, these webinars address current issues of interest to practicing attorneys on a variety of subjects. The law library will purchase a limited number of passwords for the webinars and notify subscribers via email of their availability. The webinars could then be accessed from home, office, or personal device. Most would be informational in nature and not designed for CLE credit. Please watch your email for further information about this feature.

Acquisition Highlights

Bloomberg BNA's Privacy & Data Security Law Resource Center. This online product is a comprehensive resource for all the timely topics related to:

- data security and breach notification;
- online consumer privacy;
- financial privacy & security;
- workplace privacy & security;
- government action; and
- global data protection.

The high quality BNA editorial and analysis segments are searchable as well as federal statutes, regulations, and agency documents. Also available are checklists, forms, and notification requirements.

As advertised, this is a central tool for all cybervulnerabilities.

Along with basic law covering all types of Ohio taxes, Bloomberg BNA's new Ohio State Tax Library is a comprehensive electronic research service that delivers unique and time-saving practice tools for attorneys. Key word searchable is BNA's Portfolio on Ohio Commercial Activity Tax (2260-1st). Also included are state tax forms and explanatory client letters that can be used for client communication.

Both new BNA products are available at all workstations in the media center.
